Agency

As this course is funded by central government, the Richmond Community Learning Partnership must ensure all learners are safeguarded by making them more aware of the risks of radicalisation and extremism, compliance with the prevent duty and the promotion of fundamental British values.

The fundamental British values include:

Democracy

Democracy is a system of government in which all the people of a state are involved in making decisions about its affairs, typically by voting to elect representatives to a parliament or similar assembly.

- Your opinion counts

The rule of law

All people and institutions are subject to and accountable to law that is fairly applied and enforced.

- Laws protect everyone

Individual liberty

Individual liberty suggests the free exercise of rights generally seen as outside Government control.

- Freedom of speech

Mutual respect

The proper regard for an individual's dignity, which is reciprocated.

- Having clear expectations and procedures in the learning environment
- Being consistent and to model respectful behaviour at all times

Tolerance

Of those with different backgrounds, faiths and beliefs (or those of no faith)

A fair, objective, and permissive attitude to those whose faith and beliefs may differ from one's own.

- All backgrounds and cultures

If you have any concerns regarding the prevent duty, please speak to your tutor or contact Community Learning or the Single Point of Access (SPA) team.
