

Acorn: independence

Anchor: salvation and hope.

Antelope: harmony and peace.

Arrow: symbolize martial readiness.

Badger: bravery, perseverance and protection.

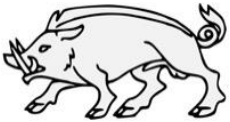

Bat: used to inspire fear in enemies

Bear: healing and personal health, strength and bravery.

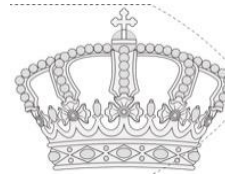

Bee: creativity, wealth, diligence and eloquence.

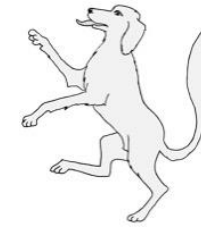

Boar: bravery and perseverance

Bull: valour, bravery and generosity.

Crown: victory, sovereignty, and empire

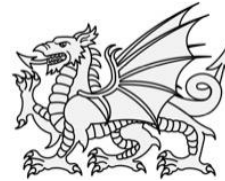

Dog: emblem of faithfulness and guardianship

Dolphin: safe travel, as well as kindness and charity

Dove: peace, gentleness and purity, loving constancy

Dragon: most valiant defender of treasure.

Eagle: lofty spirit, ingenuity, speed in comprehension

Fish: prowess and fortitude

Goat: practical wisdom

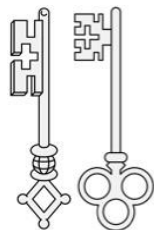

Heart: kindness and charity. The flaming heart stands for ardent affection.

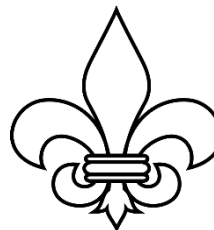

Holly: truth

Horse: speed, intellect and virility.

Key: knowledge and of guardianship

Lily: emblem of purity and innocence

Lion: courage, valiant warrior.

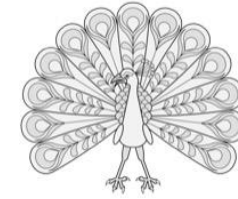

Oak Leaves: faith and endurance

Owl: vigilance

Panther: bravery in defence of the weak.

Peacock: resurrection and immortality.

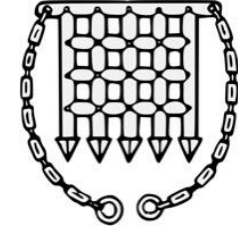

Pelican: piety, self-sacrifice, and virtue

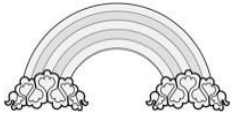

Phoenix: immortality, rebirth and renewal

Pomegranate: fertility and abundance

Portcullis: effective protection in emergency

Rainbow: sign of peace, sage travel, and good luck.

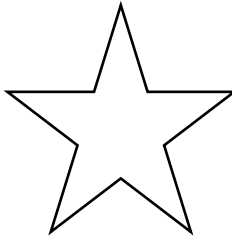

Rose: hope and joy;

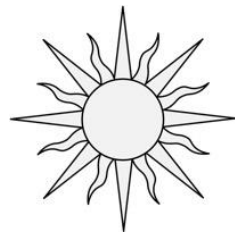

Sea horse: safe travel, particularly by sea

Stag: skilful in music, a lover of harmony purity and fleetness.

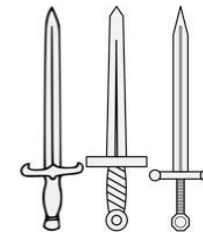

Star: honour, achievement and hope

Sun: glory, brilliance, authority, happiness, life and spirituality.

Swan: perfection, beauty and grace

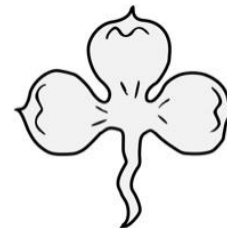

Sword: liberty and strength.

Thistle: pain and suffering.

Tiger: great fierceness and valour

Trefoil: symbol of a three-leafed clover, represents the past, present and future

Unicorn: virtue, courage and strength.